I. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

Nothing to report.

II. OTHER ACTIVITIES

1. General Cabell's inspection of the Communist Exhibit has been postponed again, and is now scheduled for 28 April. Many of the OTR staff visitors, particularly from IS, provided useful suggestions for improving and pinpointing the impact of the exhibit, and the very fact of its being up for SIC staff to stare at and think about for several days has served an extremely useful purpose. We now have several ideas as to how this can be much better tailored to suit General Cabell's purposes and still maintain a reasonable degree of sophistication. I feel that if we eliminate our attempted across the board coverage of objectives, methods, and results and concentrate upon methods the presentation will have more impact. The panel devoted to techniques can be expanded to include several sections, including "Communism as Violence," "Communism as Subversion," "Communism as Coups d'Etat," "Communism as Labor Unrest," "Communism as Political Obstruction," etc. A section could also be included covering "Communism as Soviet Imperialism." If General Cabell approves we will proceed full speed toward this more concentrated presentation. The various books and documents available could then be more closely tied to a specific aspect of Communist activity and the more general, scholarly tomes eliminated.

2. The FSI course for EOD's into the Foreign Service has been shifted once again to Front Royal. [] will present a full day's program on 13 May.
